Forecast for Thursday 24 Jun 2021

Weather: Generally overcast with periods of light rain or drizzle. Cloud will shroud peaks at times, although improving during the afternoon and evening. The best hope of brighter weather will be in sheltered valleys in the east of the Dales. Moderate or fresh westerly winds. Further rain is expected before midnight.

Chance of cloud free mountain/hill tops above 600m: Generally 10 to 20 percent through much of the morning with cloud bases as low as 300 metres, perhaps improving for a time with 40 to 60 percent chance during the afternoon. Poorer again later.

Visibility: Moderate at low levels in drizzle, very poor in low cloud cover. Occasionally good later with drier weather, and also in the east.
